only the best

We believe in good quality. We use pure wool which can be traced all the way back to the individual farmer and the blankets are made in our own oeko-tex® certified factory.

A serene beach scene on a sandy dune. In the foreground, a wooden deck chair is partially visible, draped with a light-colored blanket. To its right, a large, round, striped cushion in shades of green and cream sits on the sand. A vibrant green blanket with a white pattern of reindeer and trees is draped over the cushion. Above the cushion, a large beach umbrella with alternating green and white vertical stripes and a fringed edge stands on a wooden pole. In the background, a wooden clothesline is visible, with a white mesh net hanging from it. The ground is sandy and dotted with sparse green grass. The sky is a soft, pale blue, suggesting a calm, overcast day.

PURE NATURAL

Our wool blankets are climate-smart and good for the health. But best of all, they are biodegradable.
